

I remember 1974

foreword

"I Remember 1974" Is Dedicated
To Mrs. Celestine Hillen,
A Teacher Who Served NHS Well.

The Annual Staff of 1974, in deep appreciation of her years of service as a teacher, dedicate the "I Remember 1974" to Mrs. Celestine Hillen. Mrs. Hillen was the Seniors of '74's first teacher and we are happy to say she is still here in the year we graduate.

Thanks, Mrs. Hillen!

I remember seniors

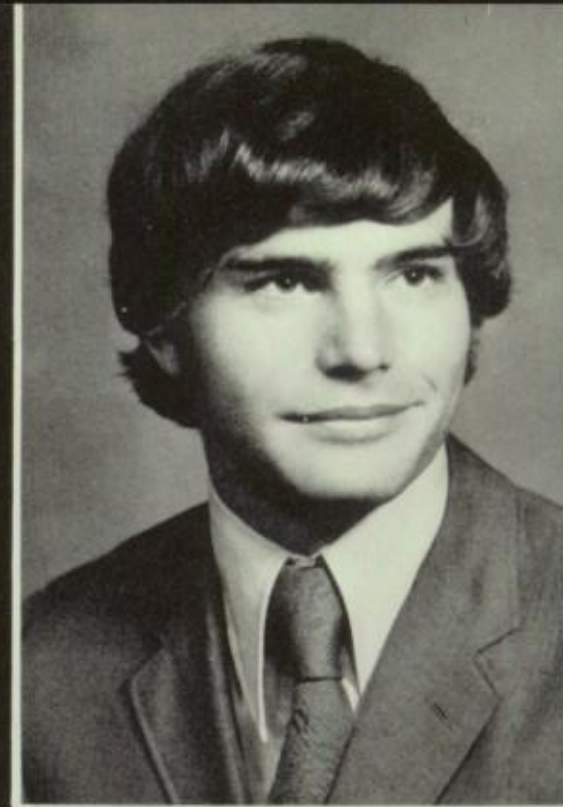

Lori Anderson

To live is the rarest thing in the world; most people exist, that is all.

Rosemary Baseel

Everything that lives, lives not alone, nor for itself.

Lou Bencoter

live your life free and happy.

Seniors

The main in life is not to be afraid to be human.

Gerry Curry

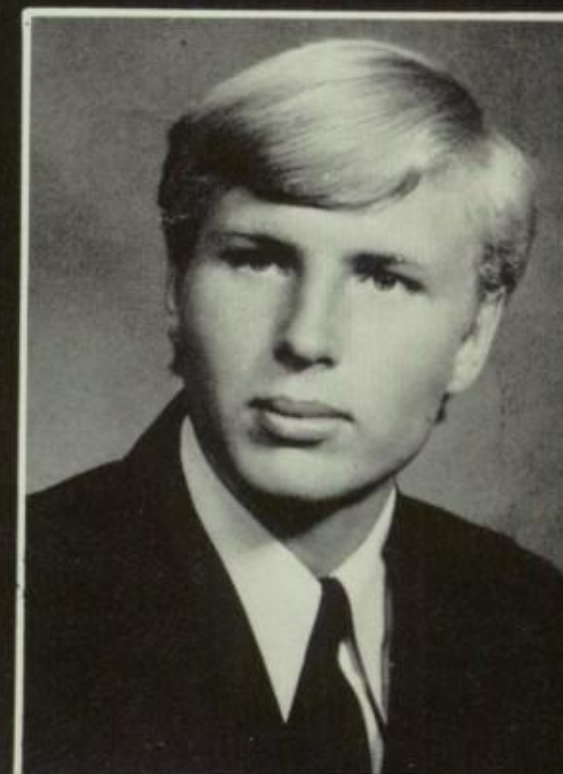

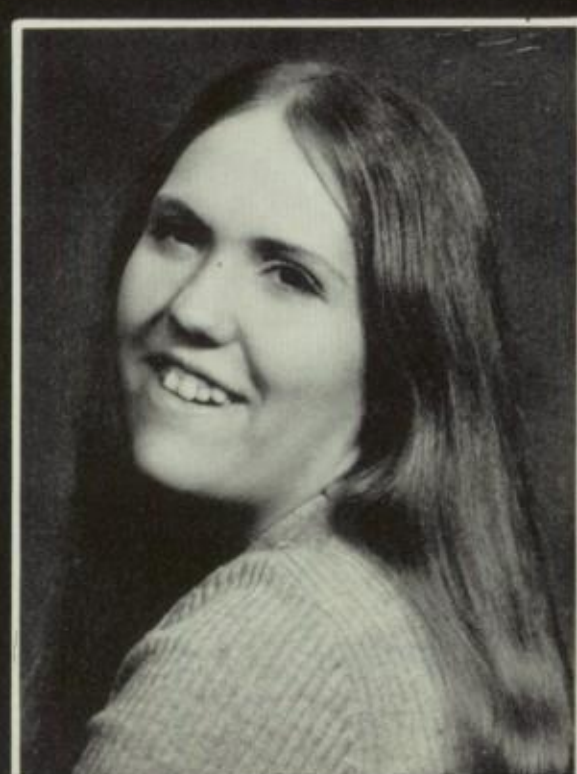

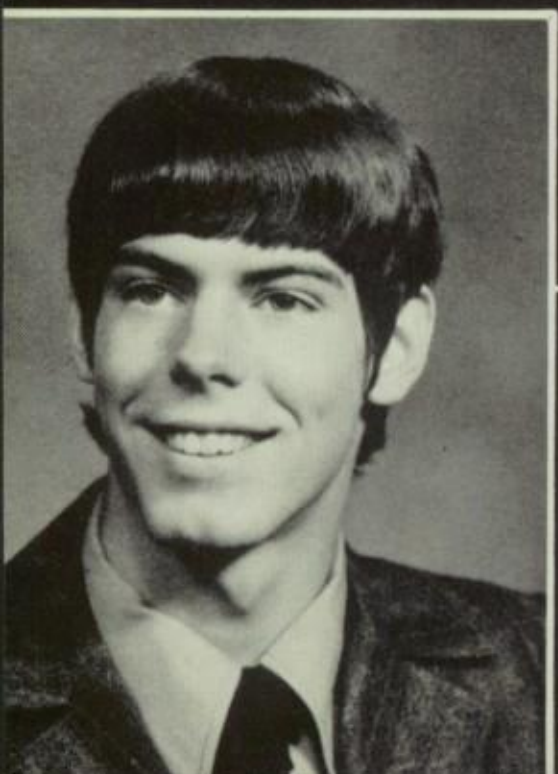

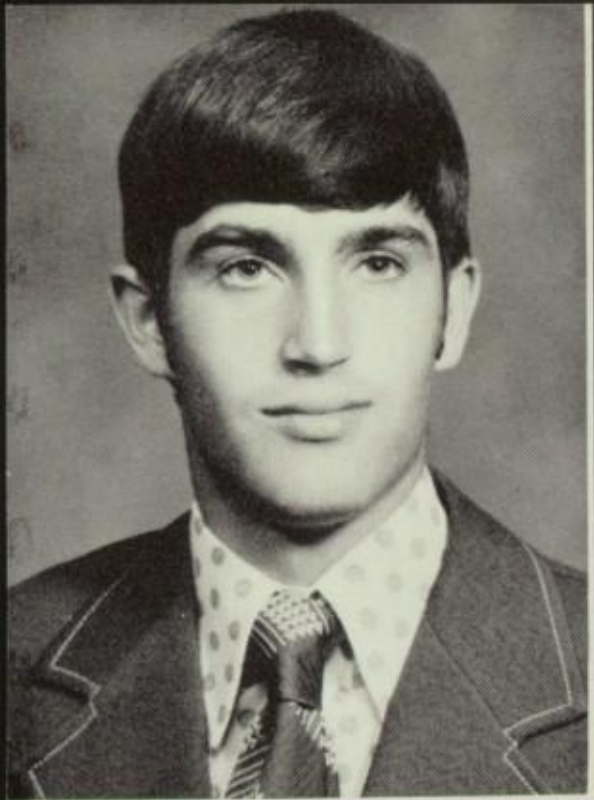

Make us a wind to bring a new tomorrow.

Suzanne Flom

Live life a little bit at a time.

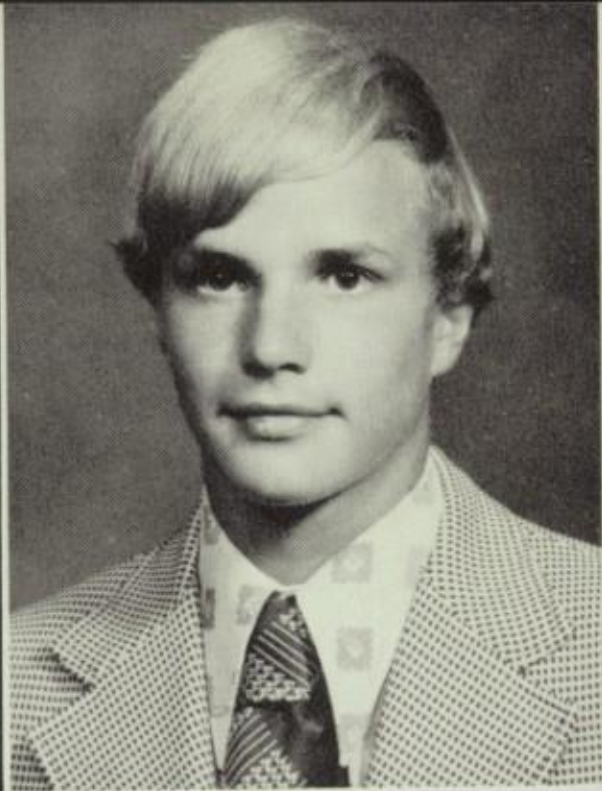

Warren Hoelsing

Kevin Johnson

Imagination is more important than knowledge.

Robert Kneifl

Each dawn is a new beginning.

William Knudsen

Genius does what it must, and talent does what it can.

Leading the Way

Life is a journey, not a destination.

Debra Lowe

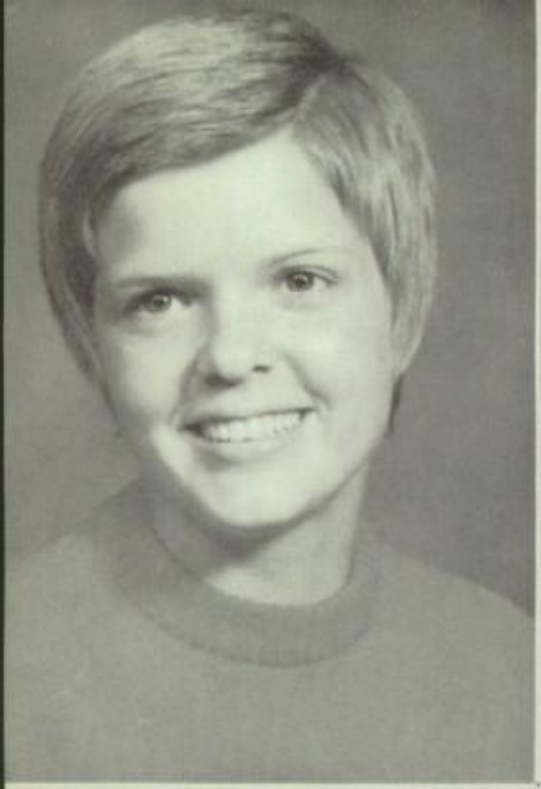

Fear not that your life shall come to an end, but rather that it shall never have a beginning.

Julianne McCabe

Why hurry to school! It will always be there.

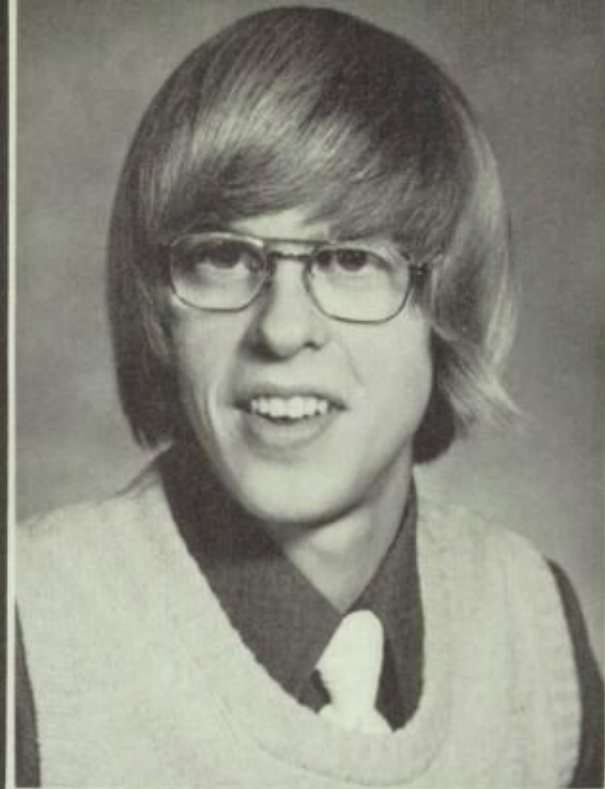

Craig Nelson

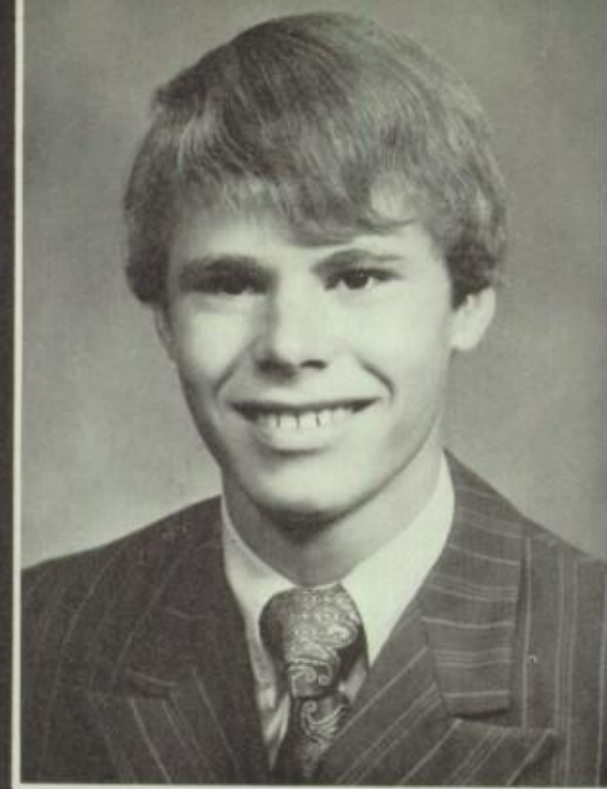

Denise Olsen

Happy are those who dream dreams and are ready to pay the price to make them come true.

Steve Olsen

Where there is an open mind, there will always be a frontier.

James Pearson

Seeing's believing, but feelings the truth.

Paul Pinkelman

Work is love made visible.

Planning

Cy Pfister

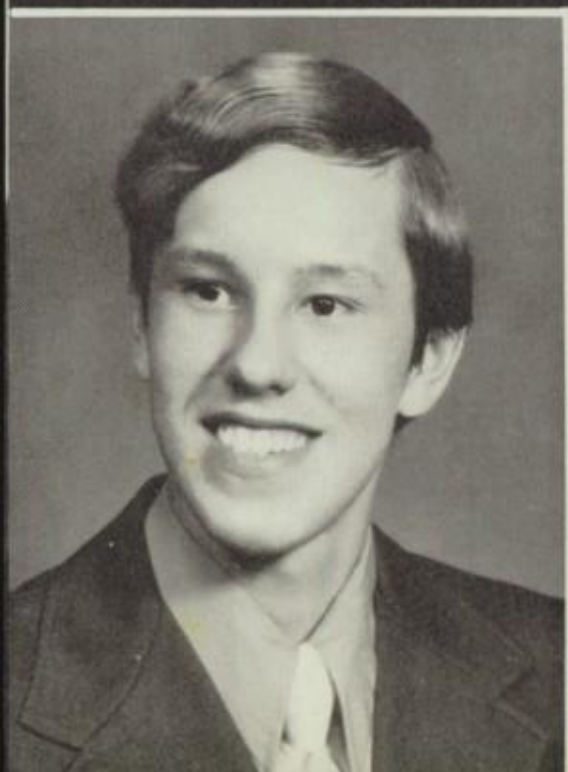

Be not simply good; be good for something.

for the Future

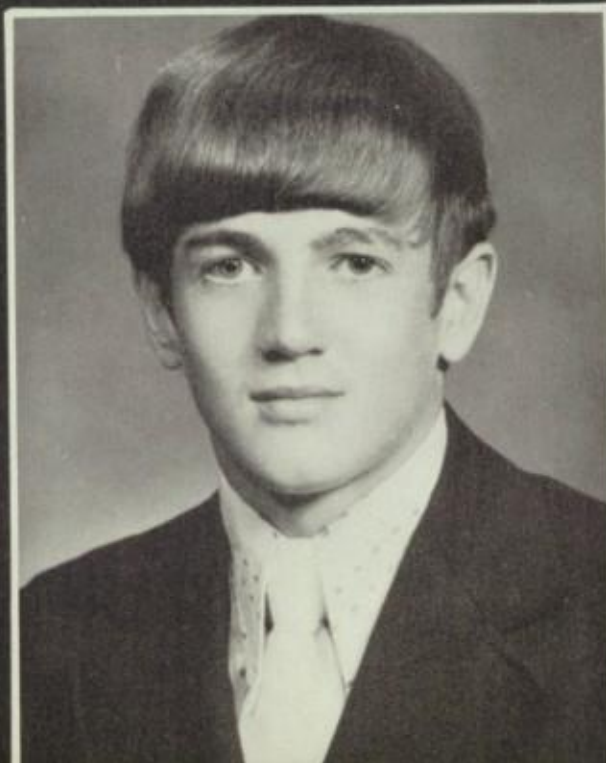

The best way out is always through.

John Schram

Growth is the only evidence of life.

Kenny Schulte

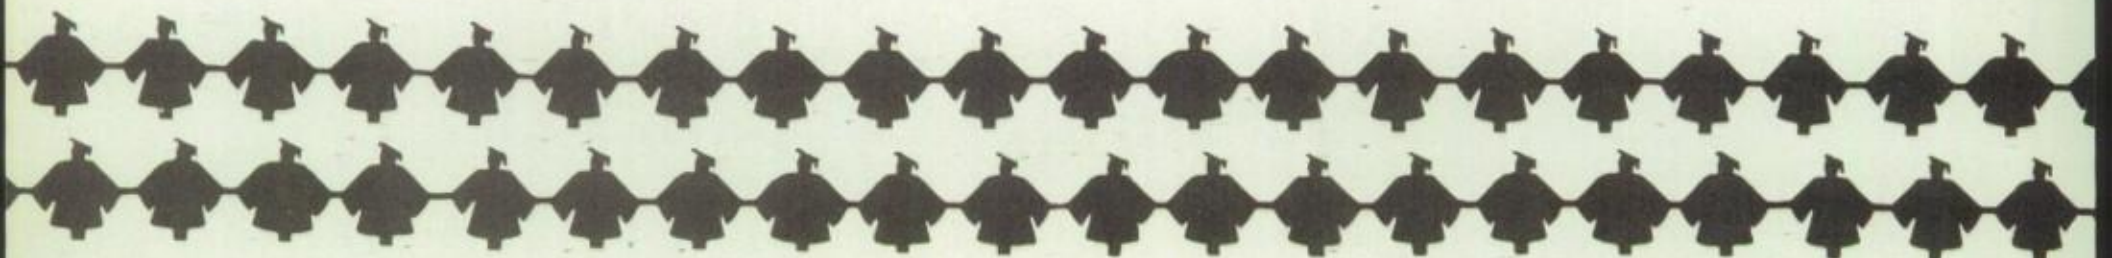

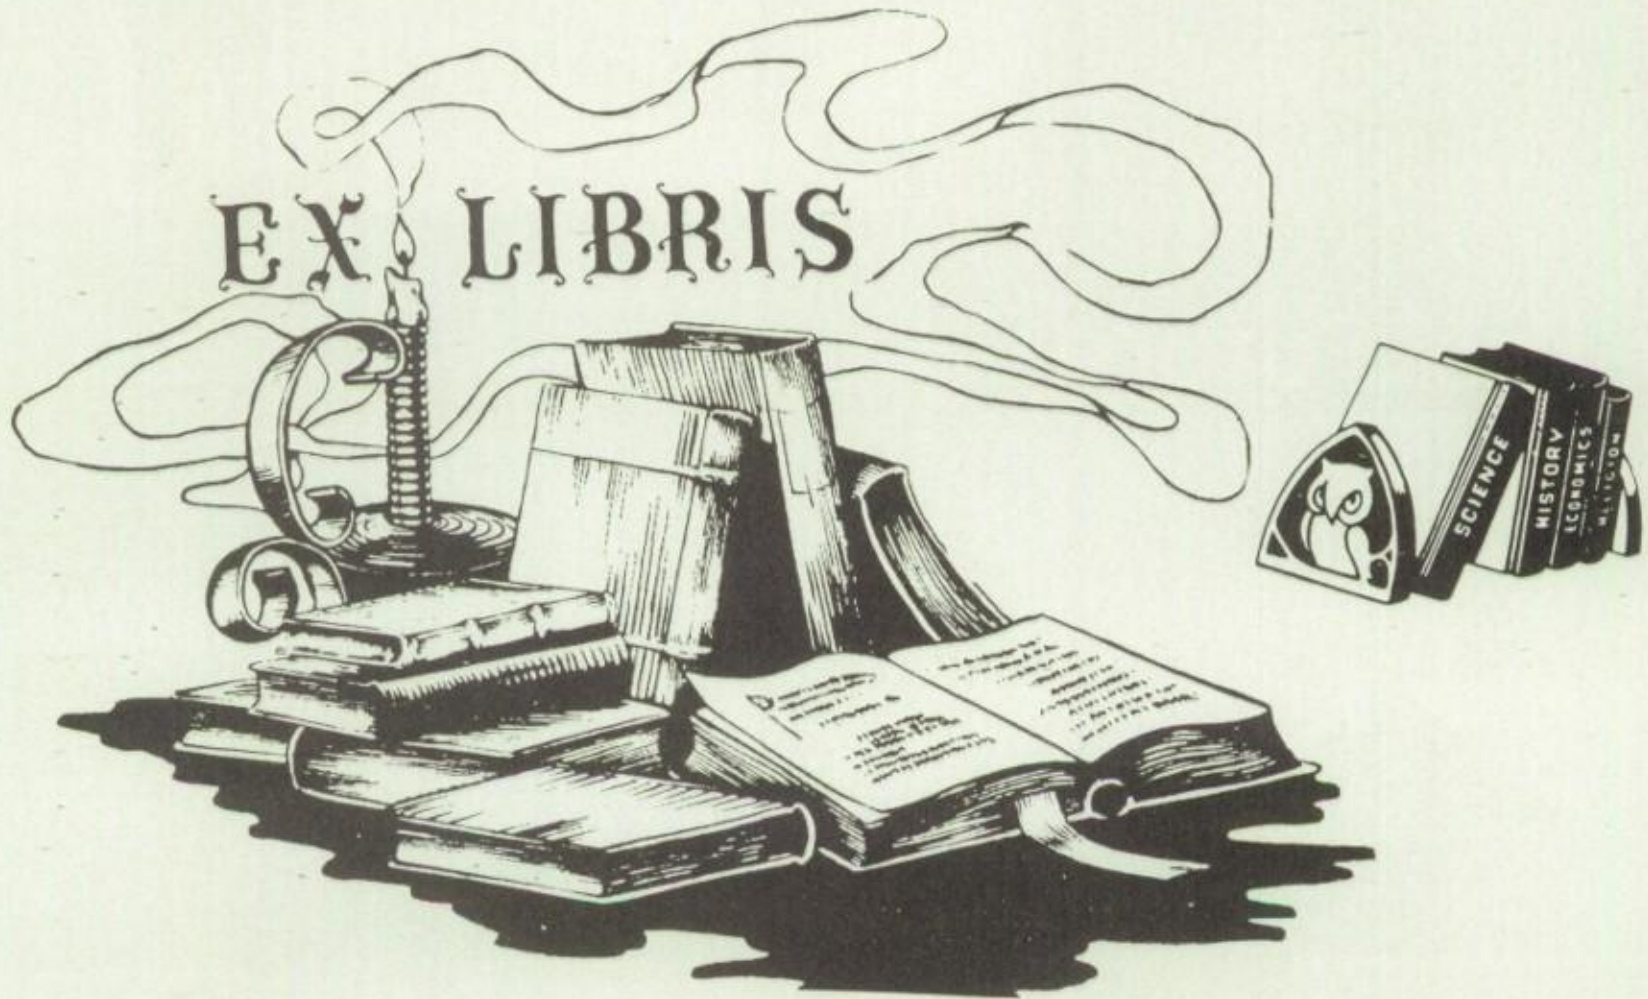

Hope is a waking dream.

Jerry Sydow

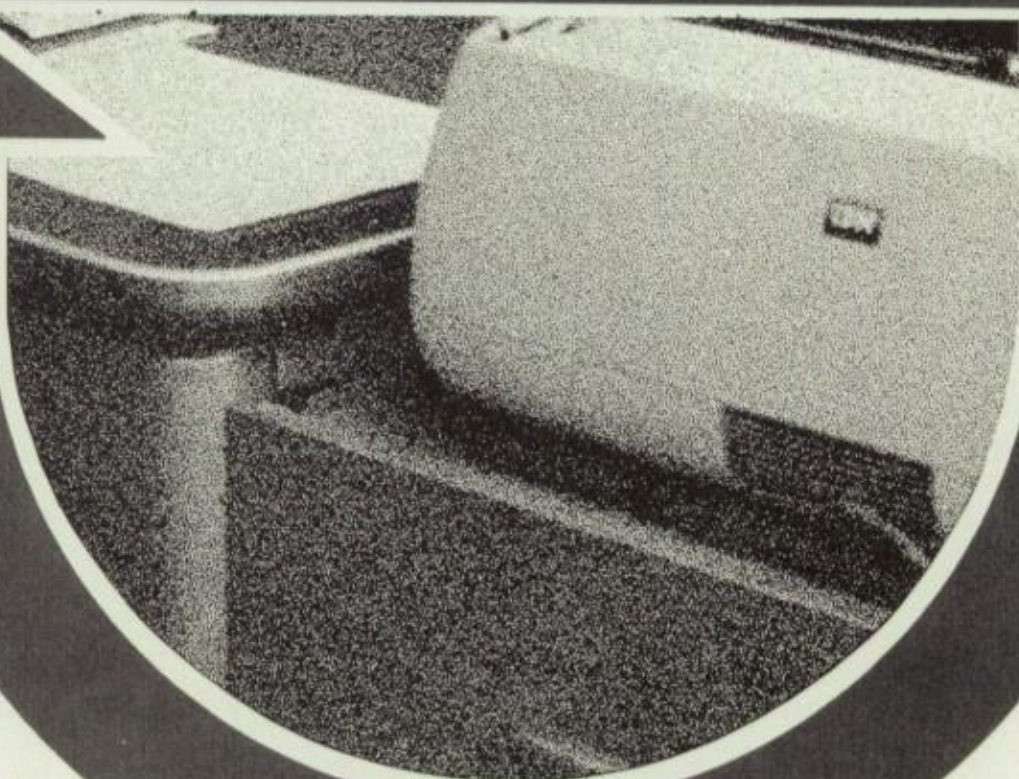

Seniors Thanks

This being the end of our High School years, we the Seniors of Newcastle High take this opportunity to thank our parents for everything that they have done to make our education possible and worthwhile. We realize how understanding they have been and the sacrifices they made in order that we could get a good education. Thanks Moms and Dads.

Youth

By Verona Swales

"Slowly...It Leaves...the Feeling Called Youth;
and in Its Place the Warm, Comfortable Glow of Middle Age"

The feeling goes--
But when it does, you do not know.
For years it lingers,
Encased somewhere near your heart--
Or becomes a lump in your throat
Awaiting romance,
Misery and Ecstasy;
Slowly,
Without your knowledge,
It leaves--
The feeling called YOUTH;
And in its place--
The warm, comfortable glow
Of middle age.

Senior Prophecy

Off to the Air Force Andy will fly,
To find her man up in the sky.
They'll do a lot of things they shouldn't oughta,
And the Air Force they'll soon be kicked outa.

A private secretary Rose has become,
She thinks her boss is really dumb.
She writes his letters and keeps his books,
And smiles at clients who have good looks.

Down the aisle Lou will stride,
With his new hillbilly bride.
Food and kids he will raise,
Being rich surely pays.

Girl chasing is Gerry's thing,
As a bachelor he will swing.
He hasn't yet to catch a girl,
But he will give it another whirl.

For years Suzie kept her head in the books,
Forgetting all about her looks.
But now Prince Charming has appeared,
And to be his wife she has veered.

Warren is the hot rod in town,
His wheels will beat everybody around.
He squeals his wheels and burns the gas,
Man, that Warren sure goes fast.

In college Kevin's majors will be
Sex education and psychology.
His mental cases he'll take care of there,
But he'll come home for Pam's good care.

A school teacher Bob will be,
Lecturing from 8 till 3.
He thinks his days are a bore,
But nights with Denise he does adore.

A famous mechanic Bill will be,
His fame will be known from sea to sea.
He cares for buses, trucks, and cars,
His name is written among the stars.

I think that I shall never see,
A better bounder than Debbie.
A future she will plan with Craigy,
For someday she may want a baby.

Julie has become a nun,
Now that her high school days are done.
Since she's been working for the Lord,
She hasn't had time to be bored.

A famous athlete Craig would be,
But now he's stuck at I.B.P.
He's had such trouble with transportation,
He's hiked all across the nation.

James is studying to be a vet,
Animals are his best bet.
His luck has slowly faded,
Because all his dogs are spaded.

An L.P.N. Denise will be,
Delivering lots of little babies.
A doctor's love she will win,
And then a family life she will spend.

Steve, the playboy he will be,
Picking up girls from A to Z.
Swinging and dancing around the clock,
Boy, that Steve sure will rock.

Cy plays a professional game,
A fooseball player is his fame.
Another fuse he likes to spark,
Is Mary Ann in the dark.

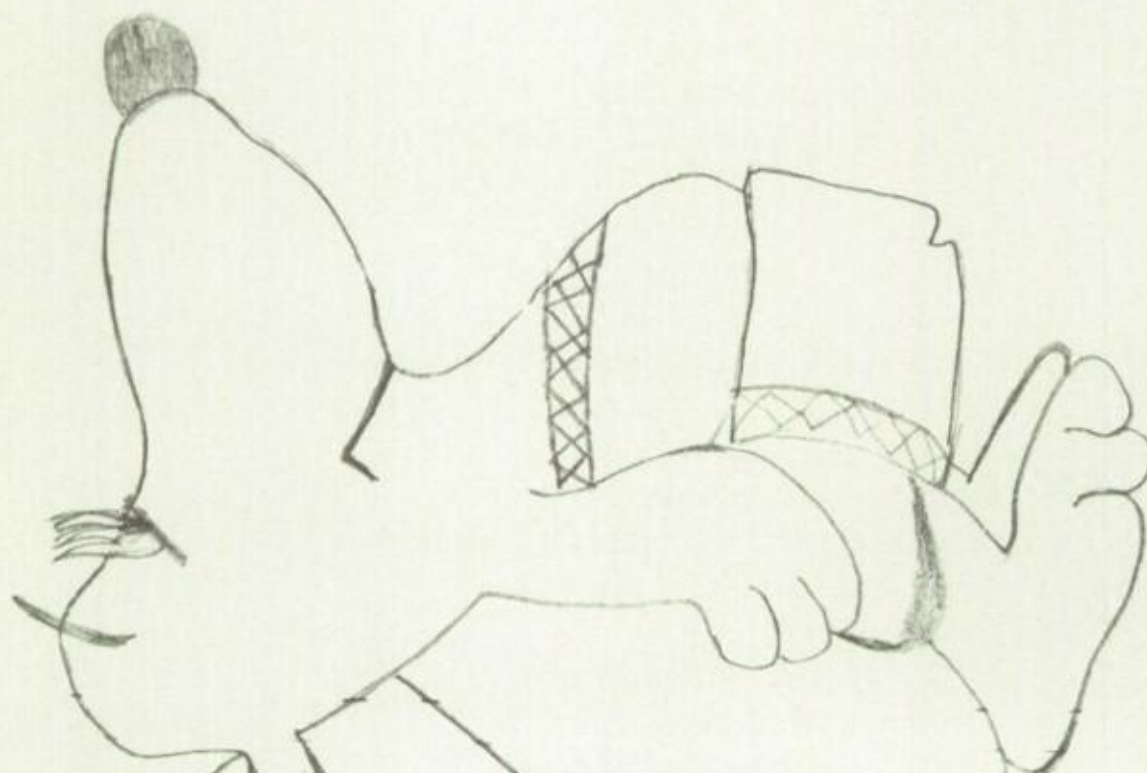

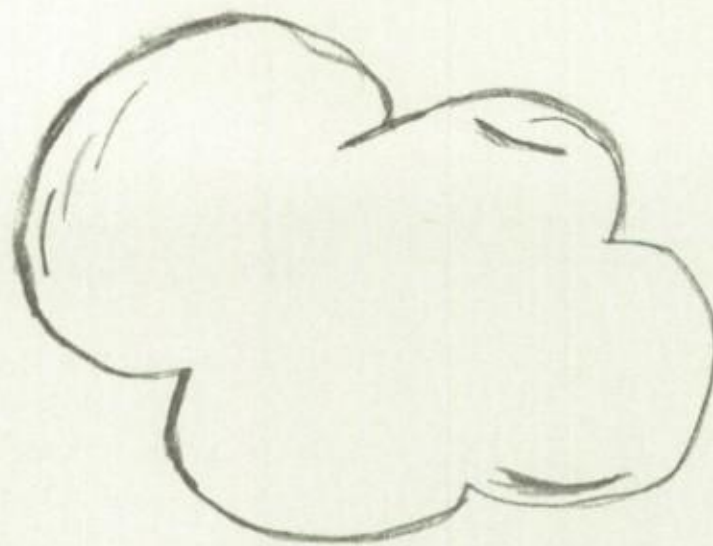

Paul's a big eater as everyone knows,
He'll set a record for eating sloppy joes.
Twelve is his record now,
But Paul will eventually break it somehow.

Johnny Schram's a ladies man,
Living down in Alabam.
A senator he'll be someday,
Bringing in a great big fee.

A great track star Kenny will be,
At World Olympics jumped 103.
Met a Russian chick one day,
And Georgy Porgy ran away.

After all of Jerry's toil,
He's become Vice President of Standard Oil.
With power and trave and lots of money,
He's still satisfied with Julie, his honey.

Seniors Trip Is a Success

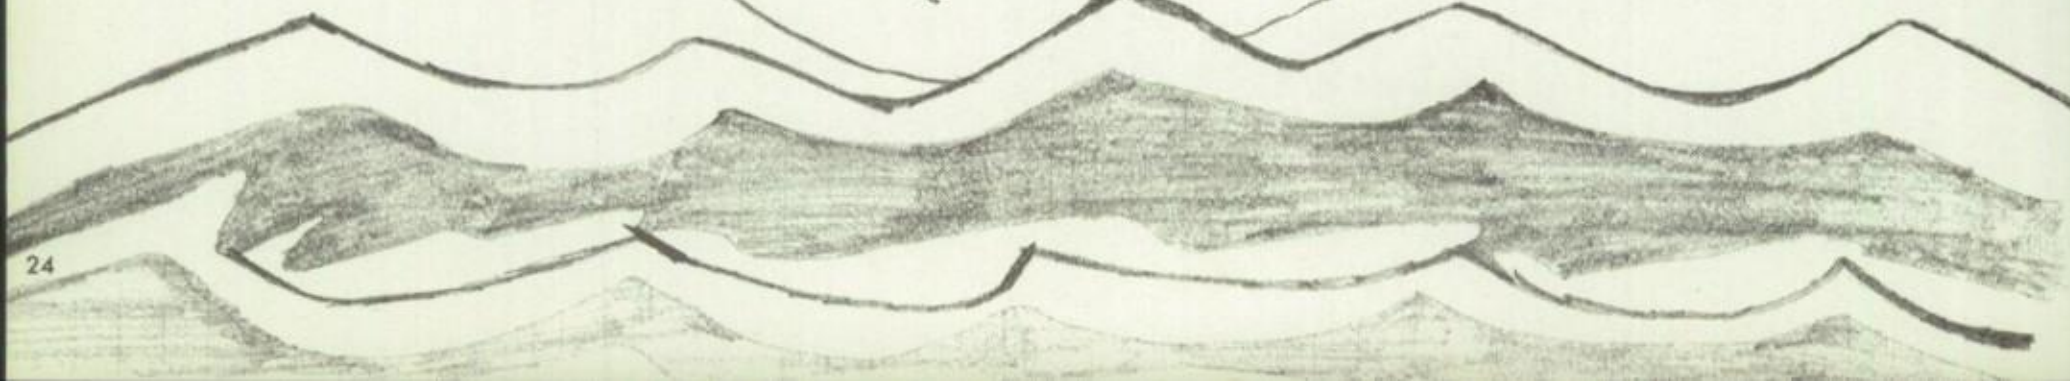

It was a dark foggy day that the Senior Class decided to sneak off to Lake Okibodji, Ia. Starting off at 5:00 a.m. Friday morning was no problem since everyone was up already, or just about everybody. For some reason Gerry and Paul had a hard time getting their heads together. About $\frac{1}{2}$ hour after we'd stopped, Gerry woke up to what was going on and came in for some breakfast.

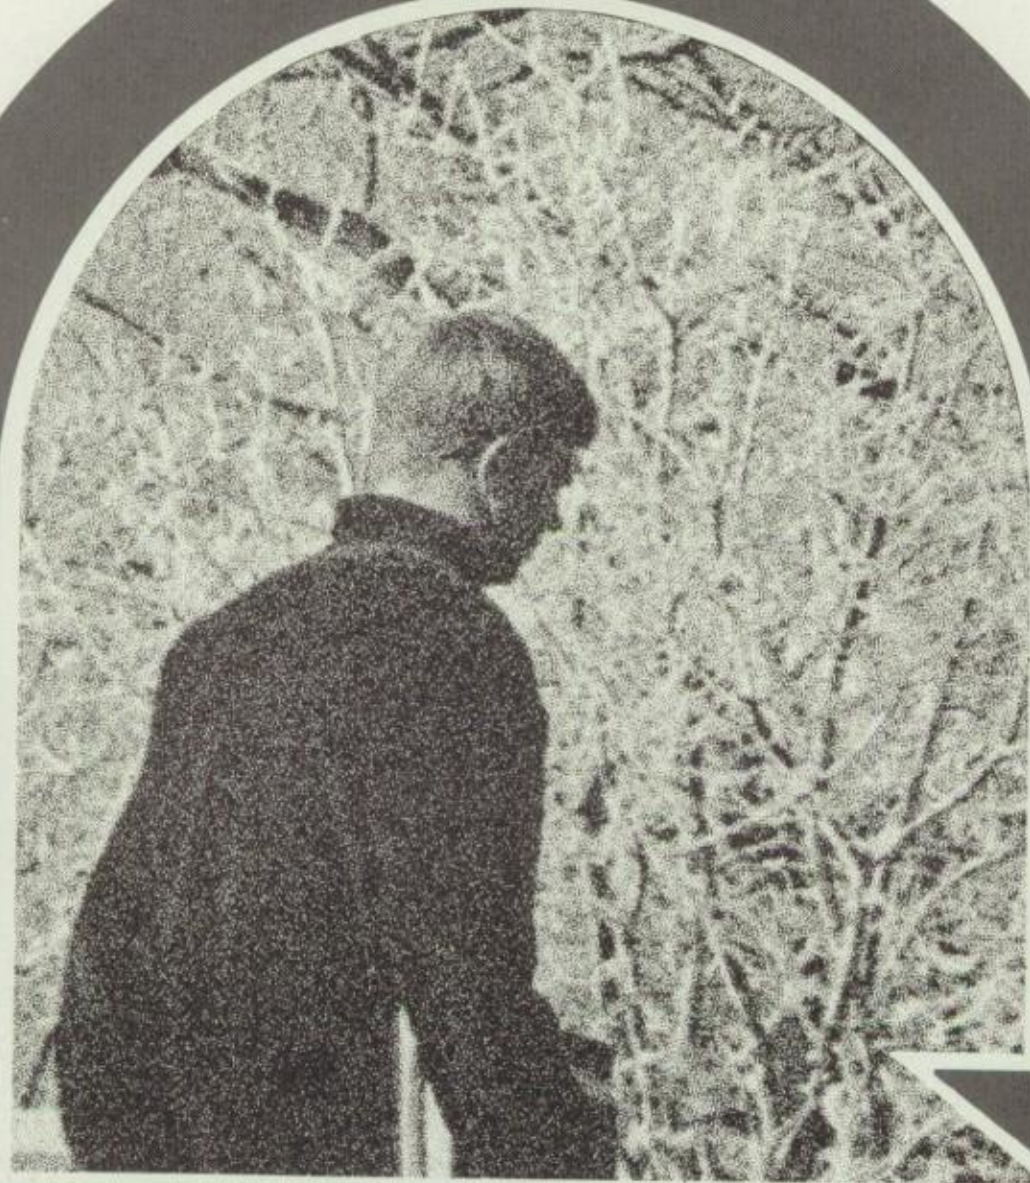

On arriving at the Lake, it looked like the trip was a waste. The weather did give us a break so we could get on the rides. On the way home, we stopped at Stub's Ranch House and filled up for supper. Paul must not have been feeling his best cause he only had one helping.

A few Seniors and the chaperones tried bowling. Lou should remember this pretty well, as it was one bet he'd lost money on.

Still looking for something to do, we decided on "The Sting." Most will tell you it was a good show. Don't ask Lori or Rose about it though. They had something better to do--sleep!

Twenty-four tired people returned home at 3:00 Saturday morning. We, the Senior Class, would like to give a special thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Schnoor and Mr. and Mrs. Ehlers for accompanying us on the trip.

Homecoming '73

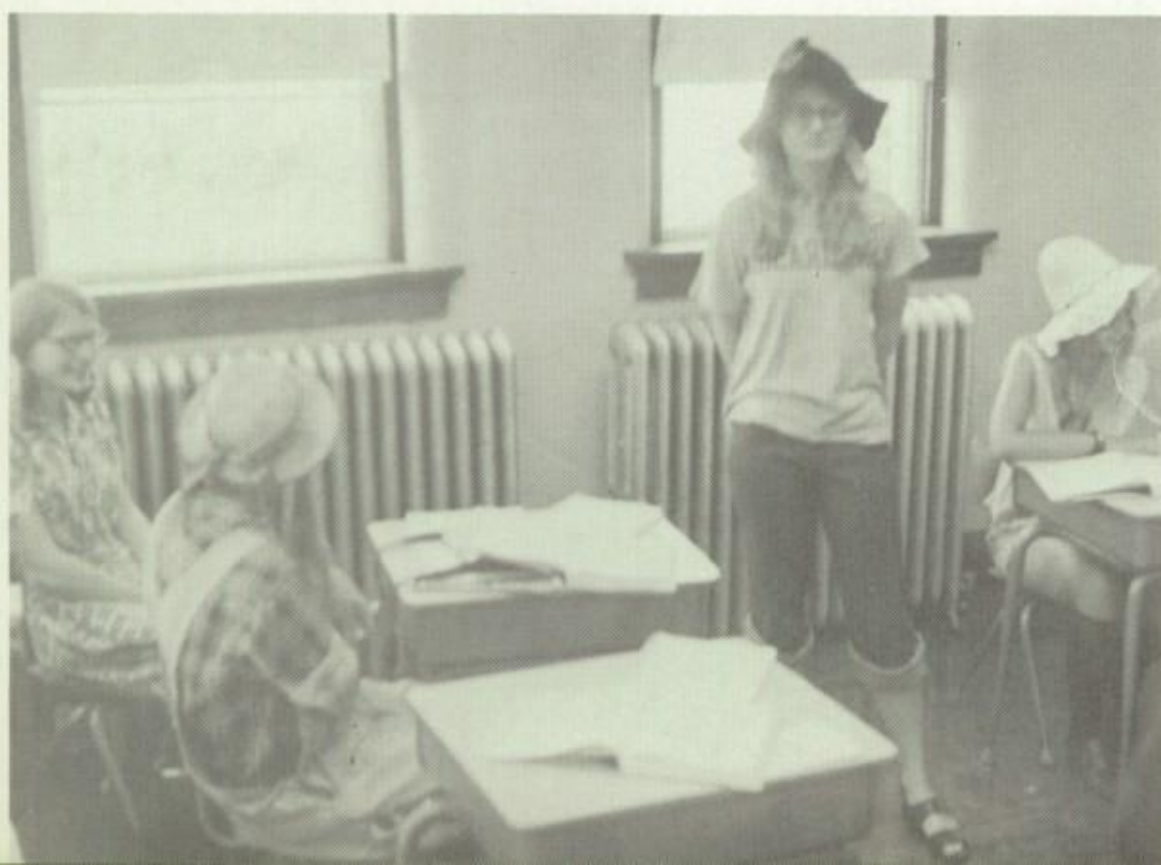

Sadie Hawkin's

Sadie Hawkin's Day 1973, brought out all the Lil' Abners and Daisy Maes in the Castle. In everything from bib overalls to derbies, students and teachers tried to outdo each other. The antics continued throughout the day.

The evening of that same day turned out to be the biggest and best sock hop all year. Probably because it was girl ask boy. The guys are just too slow.

Snake Dance

This is the biggest Pep Rally of the season. Spirit raises for the first game of the season as a big bon-fire is flaming and speeches are given. The N.H.S. football team is introduced along with the top eleven players. Captains for the football season were Seniors, Kevin Johnson, linebacker and fullback, and Cy Phister, offensive guard and defensive end.

Five Seniors were picked to be in a yelling contest. The winner, being Cy, won a worthy and useful prize.

The Snake Dance preceded a decisive victory over the Rosalie Bulldogs, 34-6.

Each day is a lifetime in miniature. To awaken each morning is to be born a- gain, to fall asleep at night is to die to the day.

In between waking and sleeping are the golden hours of the day. What we cannot do for a lifetime, we can do for a daytime.

Anyone can strive to be happy for a day and to spread happiness around. Anyone can radiate love for a day.

Anyone can rise above fear for a day and meet each situation with courage.

Anyone can be kind and thoughtful for a day.

Anyone can endeavor to learn something new each day and mark some growth.

The supreme art of living is to strive to live each day well. Live a day at a time and remember that tomorrow is another today.

Senior Class Will

I, Lori Anderson, being of bruised body and equally beaten mind will the following: To Pam Wendte, my blinding speed and overwhelming dedication when it comes to putting out the school papers. To Mary Ann McCabe I will a tackling dummy so she can use it instead of me on next year's parties. To Patti Pfister my ability to tell time so she won't have to be kept in suspense through next year's volleyball games. To next year's volleyball captains I give my ability to win tosses but I know they won't do better than we did.

I, Rose Baseel, being of bewildered mind and a super-fine body, will the following: To Pam Anderson, a punching bag of her own so she won't hit me in the gut anymore. To Patti Lou Pfister the ability to keep her cool at all times when things get rough. And last but not least, to my sister Joyce, the ability to climb our stairs at late hours and not be heard by our mom.

I, Lou Bencoter, being of weak mind and undeveloped body, do here by will the following: To my brother my ability to get out of class for any reason. To next years copy editors, Dawn and Ilene, my ability not to make mistakes on the copy sheets. And last to J.J. my ability to never be in first period study hall so he can bug Mrs. Frerichs as much as I did.

I, Gerry Curry, being of bewildered mind and deranged body do will the following prized possessions. To anyone who wants it, my ability to sleep in Modern Problems class. To Lori Thomas, my ability to avoid deep ditches while driving. To my sister Pat, my ability to run, hoping she will make better use of it than I did. To Connie Block some new swear words so she don't have to use her's over and over again.

I, Sue Flom, being of deranged mind and dissapted body do hereby will the following: To Ann Kneifl and Donna Bennett my height so they won't always have to stand on the bottom row of the risers. To the Junior girls and Coach Petersen double practice time and a terrific Volleyball season so they can do what we always wanted to, go to state. To who ever is the shortest person in high school, I will my bottom locker because they won't have as far to bend down as I did. Last but not least to Keith I will my ability to get in early and stay out of trouble. Also I will him an alarm clock that sounds like a cannon being discharged and then vibrates the bed. (That's the only thing besides me that will be able to get him out of bed in time for school).

I, Warren Hoesing, being of deformed body and warped mind, do hereby will the following: To Mrs. Frerichs an elevator between the 2nd and 3rd floors so she can save on shoes. To the Freshmen girls I will a decent Freshmen boy for each. To Connie and Patti Sue Block all the love and affection Walt has spread on my Mustang and I. To Renee Olsen a bed of her own in Newcastle so she have to mess up Alice Cooks.

I, Kevin Johnson, being of weak body and exhausted mind will some of my following most prized possession. To Glen Pfister the ability to center the football on punt so he doesn't roll as many back to the punter as I did. To Larry Schulte my ability to sleep in class although I doubt he needs it. To John Harding my ability to fumble the football so the coach will have someone to scream at.

I, Bob Kneifl being of superior body and fantasy brain will the following: To Glen Pfister, my mouth, so that he will be as embarrassed as I have been. To Renee Olson, my ability to say "no" to the members of the opposite sex. To Scott Miller, an underground tunnel to Shelly Chase's house, so that he won't be seen going there.

I, Bill Knudson being of deteriorated mind and worn out body will the following prized possessions. To Scott Miller my indisputable modesty and the ability to keep my mouth shut. To the Juniors all my empty beer cans in hopes they get as much fun out of them as I did. To Kevin Bennett the ability to tear around and not get picked up by Walt.

I, Deb Lowe, being of learned mind and fantastic features will to the following unfortunate people: To any one of next years cheerleaders, the ability to fight their way out of the boys locker room, no matter how unbelievable the sights are. To all next years couple, a special room of their own, with the sign Love Machine above the door, so that all sane and single people will be able to keep their sanity. To Pam Andersen and Pam Wendte, my ability to come to school late 3 out of 5 days for the first semester of school, even if they do live right across from school.

I, Julie McCabe, being of dilapidated body and deformed mind will the following: To Patti Block, I will the Blue car paint of my Dodge from the time we met on Lookout Point. To Mary Ann McCabe, my nickname Butch. To my brother, Dick, the 65 Dodge on one condition, he doesn't stash too many bottles under the seat. Last but not least, to Rocket, my position as Annual Staff Editor.

I, Craig Nelson being of soul mind and sexy body, will the following: To Scott Miller an 8 track tape recording of his own voice repeating how great he thinks he is so he doesn't have to bribe the little kids. To the Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen boy's my Athletic abilities, so they can combine it together so they might be as good as I was. To Renee Olsen my sexy body so she repair hers. To Coach Puetz all the beer that I have drank so that he may stay sober one night out of the week. And last of all to the kids of N.H.S. my ability to go out and have a blast.

I, Denise Olsen, being of highly intellectual mind and superior body will the following: To Lor Grosvenor the 880 run because nobody else will take it. To my sister Renee, my ability to get home early once in a while since she hasn't made it home on time yet! Remember--midnight, Craig!!! To Lori and John a different route home so they won't get caught anymore when John's gear shift gets stuck. And to Mary Ann and Pam Wendte my ability to pull the fire alarm when things get really boring next year.

I, Steve Olsen, of intelligent mind and tired body will the following: To Dan Pinkleman my ability to try and brake the two mile record in hopes he has better luck than I did. To Scott Miller, a tire fix-it kit so his car doesn't sit for more than a week at a time. To Kevin Bennett, my ability to blow a motor in hopes he gets a new one.

I, James Pearson, being of disputed mind and magnificent body do hereby will the following: To Al Kneifl my height in hopes he will have to stand on his tip toes to reach something someday. To the passengers of bus No. 4, an automatic bus mover since I won't be around next year to do it. To my sisters the ability to climb those stairs 2:30 Sunday morning under my conditions.

I, Cy Pfister, being of deteriorating mind and supersonic body do hereby will some of my most prized possessions to the following fortunate people: To Mr. Crosley his own cedar chest so he doesn't always have to sit on mine. To next years Modern Problems Class my ability to stay awake and alert during all those films. And last to the coaches the ability to make next years football team run 20 times up the Green Monster every night after practice.

I, Paul Pinkleman, of liquored body and deteriorated mind hereby will the following: To my brother Dan two friends to help him go through alleys in times of need. To my brother Bill the ability to keep his shirt buttoned since he never does. To Mr. Schnoor my ability to eat 12 sloppy Joes without gaining a pound.

I, John Schram, being of superior mind and excellent body will the following: To Glen, my ability to get so nervous before basketball games. To next years football stat men my ability to keep accurate and precise stats. To my little brother, all of my old basketballs and basketball shoes so he can teach himself to play as well as I did.

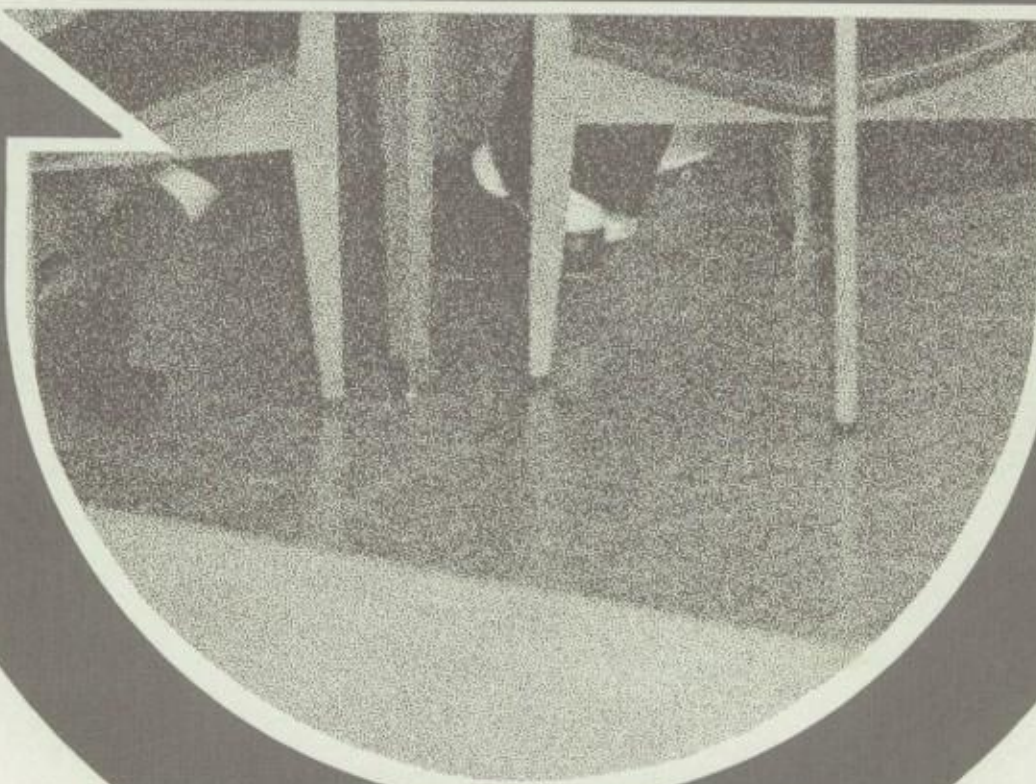

I, Ken Schulte, being of warped mind and broken body hereby will the following: To Al Kneifl my ability to cheat on the basketball statistics in hope that he helps people break as many records as I did. To Kevin Bennett my ability to stay out leate and still be able to get out of bed and work the next day. To Socct Miller the ability to act like a grown up even though I know it will be hard for him.

I, Jerry Sydow, being of over worked mind, and outstanding body hereby will the following: To John Harding, my bicycle since he won't have anything to drive for awhile. To Dick, Tom, and Nancy McCabe, the ability to catch me cheating at cards. To Bruz Lamb, the ability to hear a beer can hit the road at 300 yards away. And to Walt Block, all of my sympathy, because he's gone through a lot this year.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have set our hands and seal to this last will and testament at Newcastle, Nebraska, this 27th day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-four.

on the Move

People everywhere at N.H.S. are always active. Whether it's sports or activities, there's a high spirit which makes the year memorable for everyone. There are the big events of the year, prom, homecoming, plays, Sneak Day, as well as the weekly events of football, basketball, volleyball, and track to look forward. At N.H.S. ideas are exchanged. There are many different opinions expressed and much is learned from each other. This is what makes N.H.S. such an interesting place.

Raiders Win Division Title

As Lewis Division Champs, the Raiders traveled to Wayne State on Wednesday, November 14, to take on the Clark Division Champs, the Coleridge Bulldogs.

Newcastle approached playoffs with a 7-2-1 record and Coleridge had a 7-2 record. The Raiders had beaten the Bulldogs in regular season play by a score of 21-18.

The game started on the soggy, slippery field with it raining lightly and a strong wind blowing the length of the field. Neither team was able to sustain a drive in the first quarter and it ended in a 0-0 tie.

The defensive struggle continued in the second quarter until Coleridge intercepted a screen pass and scored. With the 2 point conversion, Coleridge took the lead 8-0.

In the third quarter, Newcastle was plagued with fumbles and interceptions. Finally Coleridge took advantage and scored again to stretch their lead 16-0.

Coleridge scored again in the fourth quarter with a long pass into the end zone, making their lead 23-0 with the extra point. Newcastle took to the air trying to get on the board hitting Bob Kneifl and Craig Nelson for large gains, but the time ran out before the Raiders could score.

Gerry Curry led the Red Raider defence with 10 tackles. Craig Nelson offensively has 16 carries for 54 yards, Scott Miller had 14 carries for 48 yards, and Kevin Johnson had 4 carries for 12 yards.

Determined The Raiders Go Forward

The Newcastle Raiders finished a fine basketball season this year with a record of 9 and 8. Under the direction of Coach Gary Puetz. The Raiders began the season with a wealth of experience returning 7 letterman, 4 who were starters of last year. The Raiders had tough luck in the early part of the season losing four of their first six. Fighting back with a five game winning streak the Raiders came into contention for the Lewis Division Championship only to have their hopes shattered by Ponca, who won the championship. The Raiders were forced to settle for second place and began plans for the District Tourney. Coach Puetz led his club to Wisner for the Districts with visions of state tournament play only to be upset by a strong shooting Rosalie team.

Raiderettes—Lewis

The Raiderettes fought their way to the Lewis Division Championship. Under the leadership of Coach John Petersen, the team learned what work and determination can do for a team.

Our co-captains were two Senior girls: Deb Lowe and Lori Anderson. Having little experience, and with only one starter back from last year, the Raiderettes did very well. The girls did fine on setting, spiking, receiving and saving the ball, but serving was the main downfall in any loss. Even with this one fault the Raiderettes pulled out a good season record of 14-4.

The season's highlights were two tournaments, with the team winning both the Crofton and Newcastle Invitational tournaments.

The Raiderettes lost the Conference Championship to Wausa, two games to one. The team made it to the second round of the district tournament, 2-1; falling by two points in the last game to the District Champs, Snyder.

Two Qualify For State Meet

A season's hard work proved to be fairly rewarding for two track men, Ken Schulte and Scott Miller. Both Qualifying for State, Ken, participating in the Triple Jump, set a new school record of 42 ft. 7½ in. Scott took part in the discus throw. He threw 123 ft. Neither placed at State, but both were glad to attend.

What Is a Yearbook?

And what is a yearbook? Just as Newcastle is not just beautiful, sprawling buildings, not just 269 students and 24 teachers, not just victorious athletic teams, talented musical groups--but the essence, the vitality, the warmth, the intangible, living heart of all these--so a yearbook is like a magic mirror; capturing, holding, and reflecting forever the vibrant force and personality which was our school year.

A yearbook is people--and people are laughter, tears, tears, cheers, taunts, quick-silver dreams, cynicism which seeks solitude to cry, studies, goofing off. People--people growing up--but growing hurts!

And a yearbook is events--proms, music, dates, and lack of dates. Football games won and celebrated, football games lost with tired senior players walking silently together for a last look at the lengthening shadows on a now-empty stadium turning quickly away with unbidden tears.

A yearbook is life--a year of life--a year lived--a year now gone--and the promise of all the years that are to come.

Today as I write what is soon to be a page in the 1974 yearbook, a thought begins to weigh heavily on my mind. On this day I am yet a senior at NHS still looking with anticipation toward graduation. But as you read this, I and my classmates will be history. Seniors of 1975 will be sitting in the desks and using the lockers that we have for nine months called ours--a frightening experience.

The purpose of a yearbook is to preserve a school year in pictures and words. Aside from the staff and advisors, many contributed much toward making this book possible and merit not only my thanks, but also recognition of their talents. I want to thank Bill Knudson and Warren Hoelsing for allowing me to take advantage of their photography skills, our advertisers for the necessary financial support, Deb Lowe and Patti Lou Pfister, my co-assistant editors, for devoting their time and effort to helping me publish this yearbook of 1974, and finally my friends who took the time to listen.

Realizing now that each of us will too soon leave NHS and step into a world of an uncertain future, I hope this book serves to bring back a treasure of warm memories throughout the years.
